Click here for my Link Tree Account which has all my social media accounts. If it is not listed, it is NOT mine!

For first time readers, my name is Tony Odarg. I am the owner and writer of this blog. I am the voice you hear, but don't see, on all the podcasts on this blog and the author of all the articles unless otherwise stated. My purpose in doing this blog is several fold, which are explained on my About page.

If you are interested in downloading or listening to my podcasts, please go to my Archive account here and you can search through the hundreds of podcasts I have done, or go to the podcast tab at the top left and search through the individual podcasts. The video versions of all podcasts are available at my bitchute channel, which you will redirected to if you click on the Video tab at the top. If you enjoy my articles, please forward them to your friends. All comments have been turned off to avoid trolls and feds. Documentation mentioned or cited in podcasts or articles is in the blog post associated with that article or podcast. A few exceptions exist, but generally all documentation is archived in case it is deleted or altered. If you would like to donate to help me pay my student loans off, click the donate button at the top of the screen. From there you can choose between Subscribe Star or Patreon. If you want to contact me, my email address is tonyodarg@gmail.com or click the contact button at the top of the screen. I always enjoy hearing from readers and I do my best to respond. Please follow my blog by entering your email in the box marked "Follow blog via email" on the right hand side.

If there are any problems with the site, any concerns about some fact or any comment, constructive criticism or any other thing, please contact using the email listed about or the contact form in the top right corner.
